Accomping to reports which have reached Vienna from St. Petersburg, the Czar received M. de Staal, the Russian Ambassador in London, in private audience on Sa-turday last to hear his report on the Prince A LONDON telegram, dated 16th April in the of Wales's recent visit to Berlin. During the examination of the City of Paris in the graving dock at Birkonhead the true cause of the accident to the ship on her recent voyage from New York was discovered. When the water was being gradually let out of the graving dock an extraordinary thing happened. PUNISHING A BURGLAR -- Burglaries are of almost nightly occurrence, says the Ceylon Observer. One fellow the other night was properly dealt with by a Moorman in Kollupittiya. The thief had made a hole in the wall sufficient to introduce his hand.

THE KAISER VERY LIKE LORD RANDOLPH. -The most interesting study Bir John Gorst brings home with him from Berlin is one of the German Emperor. This shrewd observer finds in his Imperial Majesty a man very much after the type of Lord Randolph Churchill. The two are, in truth, singularly alike in their hardihood of opinion, their audacity, their entire freedom from the influence of veperation, and their resolution to go their own way, overriding all respectable and established influences, whether they be those of Sir Stafford Northcote or Prince Bismarck.

-Inverness Courier.

The Ceylon papers report a case in which Mr Ramanathan; a leading member of the Tamil community of Caylon, as well as a barriater and member of the Legislative Council, lately appeared in Court at Colombo before the Chief Justice wearing the usual bands and gown, but having a turban in place of a wig. It seems that this is the first time this garb has been seen in Court in Ceylon, the late Sir Coomara Swamy, also a Tamil barrister, having always worn the orthodox robes. Mr Ramanathan did not himself argue, but held a junior brief to the Attorney General, who argued the case. But the Chief Justice (Sir Bruce Burnside) intimated to Mr Ramanathan through his registrar that he would not hear him if he attempted to address the Court, and that the only headdress for a barrister was a wig. It is reported that the Chief Justice subsequent. ly privately reiterated his determination to hear Mr Ramanathan only in a wig.

The following letter from H. B. M.'s Minister, Peking, to H. E. the Officer Administry the Government of Hongkong was land on the table of the Legislative Council this afternoon:-

Peking, April 26th, 1890. SIR, -I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's telegram. of the 14th instant, in which you inform me that the community at Hongkong had heard with great regret the news of the death of the Marquis Tseng. On the 20th instant the Tanng-li Yamen communicated to me officially a copy of the Imperial Decree issued on the subject of His Excellency's note two days later I, took occasion to con-

the Government of Hougkong. THE RECENT ROYAL VISIT, .

The Acting Colonial Treasurer brought forward the financial minute postnoned at last meeting, recommending the Council to vote the sum of $2,334.01, as an additional sum to the vote of $12,000 passed by the Council on the 12th March last, to meet expenses connected with the visit to the Colony of Their Royal Highnesses The Duke and Duchess of Connaught.

His Excellency-On the 12th March last mentioned to the Council that it was thought that the original amount that was voted for the expenses connected with the Royal visit would be somewhat exceeded and I then mentioned that there was reason to believe it would be exceeded by a sum of $2,000 or $3,000. I am glad to say that the extra sum to which I referred has not been exceeded. As the Council will see the extra expenditure incurred has been something over 82,000. I am glad that when I informed the Council the original vote would in all probability be exceeded I mentioned the limit of the excess, which has not been passed.

The Acting Colonial Secretary laid on the table the report of the proceedings of last meeting of the Finance Committee, and moved that the following votes be passed $6,000 for the improvement of the Chinese Recreation Ground, $300 for furnishing a local delivery office in connection with the Post Office, $120 for house to the Compradore of the General Post Office, $3,670 for relaying the lead roof and repairing the staircase of Victoria College.

His Excellency-With reference to the expenditure on Victoria College, I may say that there is another expenditure in question, not one that is now asked for in this vote, but there is another question concerning expenditure on this building in regard to which an enquiry is now being made. I expressed at the last meeting of this Council my regret that these sums of money should be asked -for in connection with this building. 1 cannot of course take upon myself to say what the Course take upon myself to say what conclusion those who are making the enouiry may arrive at. THE STRUGGLE FOR AFRICA.

DEBATE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS We take the following report of a discussion in the House of Commons on the African question from the Standard of 15th April, received by the German mail :-

Mr Buchanan asked for information as to our relations with Portugal in regard to the Shire River and Nyasia country, and also as to the movements of the Germans in Africa. There was a prospect of very serious disagreement with the Powers of Europe, and especially with Germany and Portugal, in consequence of the rival claims of the African Companies.

Commander Bethell said that the sphere of Germany in Africa was marked on the north and south, but was very hezy on the west. Difficulties were likely to arise in consequence of this uncertainty. He joined in urging the advisability of clearing up existing difficulties. He wished to know whether the South African Company had absorbed the Lakes Company, and, if so, whether the Charter included the territory. claimed by the Lakes Company. Fergusson entirely accepted what the hon, member for Edinburgh (Mr. Buchanap) had said as to the House having been very reticent upon this question, which must excite great interest, and was of much national importance. Hon, members would probably recognise that debates in the House upon these tender questions might possibly compli ate negotiations. In this sense he thought that the House had been well advised in its reticence, and that British interests had not suffered. The hon, member had asked for some information as to our relations with Portugal in respect of South Africa. As he had stated the other day, there were still some quostions unsettled. There was, for example, the question of the Delagoa Railway Company, in the seizure of which it thought that the British Company had been unfairly treated. Her Majesty's Government certainly expected that the company would receive just compensation, but as yet the negotiations had not brought the matter to a satisactory conclusion. As to the affairs that had lately excited so much interest, owing to the advance of a Portuguese expedition to the neighbourhood of the Lakes, her Majesty's Government had no reason to doubt the loyalty of the Purtuguese Government to the engagements they had entered into. With regard to the rumour to which the hon, member had referred, that a fresh expedition had been made against the neighbourhood of Mashonaland, he was glad to say that the Portuguese Government had assured her Majesty's Government that they had received no information whatever as to that expedition, and that the telegraths received yesterday at Mozambique made no mention of it. He was quite sure that, as the German Government relied upon us, so we might rely upon them not to take any step prejudicial to the interests that each had in view-interests quite large enough to give full scope to the energies of both countries. The region of Lakes Nyassa and Tanganyika was one in which we had reason to take great interest, seeing that it illustrated the enterprise of the very moblest of British subjects. No definite arrange i ent had been come to with regard to that region, but he hoped that the House would feel assured that the British interests were Mikindani, to enter on negotiations for protected and watched over, and that they ran no risk from the conduct of our allier, who throughout these affairs had shown such perfect loyalty to and respect for our interests. NEWS BY THE GERMAN MAIL.
